Eligibility Criteria

- Artists submitting work must be members of Baltimore Woods Nature Center throughout the duration of the exhibit.
- Artwork must be original (no kits) and connected to nature, i.e. nature themed or nature inspired.
- Artwork must be for sale.
- Artwork must be appropriate to a viewing audience of all ages.
- Only one piece per artist will be accepted except in the case of very small works such as jewelry. In this case a set (necklace, bracelet, earrings) or a collection of up to three pieces (i.e. three necklaces) will be accepted. Contact Karen Jean Smith for further clarification.
- Artwork may be two or three dimensional as long as it can be safely and securely displayed. Two dimensional art must be wired for hanging. (No hooks, loops or sawtooth hanging clips.)

Baltimore Woods Nature Center reserves the right to refuse any work that does not meet the listed criteria, or is determined to be inappropriate to the exhibit.

Supporting Materials: High quality digital images are needed for publicity purposes. If possible, please send an image of your art work to gallerycoordinator@baltimorewoods.org. Unfortunately, use of images cannot be guaranteed. Due date: October 1.

Art Reception: A contribution of a food item for the Art Reception would be greatly appreciated. Please indicate on the front of this form if you will be contributing. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

Sales

- Baltimore Woods Nature Center receives a 30 % commission on all work sold in the gallery. For a period of sixty days following the close of the exhibit, if a piece is purchased directly from the artist that is the consequence of having seen it at Baltimore Woods Nature Center, then The Woods is entitled to a 20% commission.
- New York State sales tax of 8% is collected at the time of sale. The Woods will report the sales tax and forward payment to the state.
- Payment from sales will be made to the artist within 30 days after the close of the exhibit. In the case that the amount of the check is to be $600 or more, a tax identification number will be required before the check can be issued.

Schedule

Work may not be removed from the exhibit by the artist until the close of the show unless a similar piece can be substituted and only with the agreement of the Gallery Coordinator. It is preferred that artwork that is sold remain on display until the close of the exhibit.
